ROCKCASTLE "OVER THE TOP" Third Liberty Loan

Not only did Rockcastle go over the top, but each of the three town of the county, to which allotments were made have each gone over, by a margin of about 25 per cent. The quota for Rockcastle was $36,200, divided as follows: The Bank of Mt. Vernon and the Peoples Bank had a combined quota of $23,750; Citizens Bank Brodhead, quota $9,200, and First State Bank, Livingston, quota $3,250. The sales from the four banks reported up to noon yesterday, gives a total of $47,500. This amount will be increased to nearly $50,000 by tomorrow night when the Third Liberty Loan drive comes to a close. The two Mt. Vernon banks report $32,160; Citizens Bank $10,600 and the First State Bank, $4,750, from 36 subscribers. To our four excellent banks, is due all praise for their excellent work. The good people of Wildie should be remembered as playing an important part in this successful drive. In fact there are those from every section who did good work.

The meeting at the Court house Monday when over $12,000 of this amount was raised was one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in that building for any purpose, and when the Hon. W. O. G. Hobbs, who came here from Lexington to address the people on the subject of the Third Liberty Loan had finished his address he called for subscriptions and the Anti-Kaiserism which pervaded the crowd brought subscriptions thick and fast, although many of them were of the $50 denomination. Judge Hobbs is a most pleasing and interesting speaker and his vocabulary embraces every word, with just the proper shade of meaning to describe that barbarous, inhuman German race, led by a mad man, whom they worship more than the Christ, against whom the world is struggling to day for freedom.

The list of liberty loan purchasers will appear in our next issue. If you do not have a bond get one before the bank closes tomorrow. If you don't you will be ashamed of it when it is all too late.

The Senior Play of the High School will be given at the High School Building promptly at 8:15 P. M. on Tuesday May 7. "A Scrap of Paper" is the title of the Play and it is worthy of a good audience. Admission 15, 25, and 35 cts.

Mr. T. R. Moss, representing the Food Administration will be in Mt. Vernon next Tuesday May 7th, and will address the citizens in the Court house at 2 o'clock p. m. on that day on the importance of food conservation. Hear him, he will have a message of vital importance to every American citizen.

Money is more plentiful than it ever was during this generation. The high prices makes these times about normal times, as to cash and price. If we use as much food and clothing and waste as much as in normal times, we can't help finance this war. But, if we economize all we can save at least one fourth of our earnings. Then all can buy bonds and donate to the Red Cross.

J. A. Carter, of Berea, now connected with the H.C. Whitmer Company, proprietary medical manufacturers of Columbus, Ind., was in town last Tuesday looking after the interest of his company, he being the state agent, and is securing a local agent to represent Rockcastle.

ABOUT RHEUMATISM.
Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.

It's Hard to Tell Which IS The Best

YOU can seldom determine the real value of a shoe by its appearance. Merchants, themselves, are often deceived and cannot be certain as to what the shoe is actually worth unless it is cut up to see how it is made.

Nothing equals LEATHER for making good shoes. Many substitutes for leather are often used — where they cannot be seen — because they are cheaper than leather. But you may be assured of honest leather-built shoes, correct styles, and all-around satisfaction by purchasing

On the Soldier's Special
By DR. M. PENNINGTON

The grind of brakes the escaping steam in clouds and the train stood still, the conductor came down and said, you will have to come up this way, and twenty of our young men, practically fit and mentally qualified for the army service made their way through a throng of relatives and friends, who had been buying Liberty Bonds and declaring their intention of standing back of our army with might and main. In two minutes the special was underway. Mt. Vernon left behind. On looking through the train we saw a fine bunch of men from the Cumberland and Black Mountains. No one could be seen of the type described by the novelist as the feudist or clansman of the mountains. None showed signs of fear or reluctance. None were boasting of their intentions, they were just plain but determined men from the mountain section of Kentucky that ever has responded to our country's call. The men of pure Anglo-Saxon blood, who have made history in all wars in which our country has engaged. There was the bookkeeper, the clerk, the horny handed farmer and coal marked miner all mingling as brothers. There was the well dressed young man, hair cut and clean-shaven accepting a seat beside the poorly clad boy with faded cotton shirt and long unkempt hair. There was good fellowship of all. The line that made society the class here had been erased. All on this train were of one class. Americans, who were answering the call of their country, and there are only two classes in this nation today, Pro-American and Pro-German. There is no middle ground. If we are not helping in some way to win this war we are helping the enemy by drawing our support from this country and not giving in return what is our reasonable share of assistance. These men were cheerfully going to a caissonment where restrictions will be put on their acts and mode of living to prepare for a fight for their lives and the freedom of the world. The train stopped for water at Brodhead and for many of the amateur soldiers this stop is pleasantly rewarded. The ladies

WHEN you choose clothes it's worth something to have plenty to choose from, all good. We've got them; real quality clothes; unequal values at $15, $20 and $25.

Wanted:
—your confidence.

IN these days of wool shortage and uncertain quality you should choose your clothes dealer with as much care as you would select your lawyer. Pick out one worthy of your confidence.

We'd rather "miss" a sale than misrepresent any article. The loss of a sale means little to us; the loss of your confidence much.

We like to emphasize for the benefit of particular men that "we've got the goods;" clothes and furnishings as fine as ever, in as great a variety as ever.

Come in and look us over.

If you can't afford to buy both clothing and Bonds, buy Liberty Bonds.

of that good town handed a bunch of beautiful flowers to each one who could get to them, and the boys handled these tokens of love very tenderly, and the light that came in the lonesome boys' faces was fine. Some of them said, on the return from France, they would stop off at Brodhead. They complimented the young ladies very highly and one said there were more pretty girls there than he had ever seen together. It caused the writer to reflect for a minute and decide, that it was likely a true statement. Brodhead ladies are very fair and the thoughtfulness of the girls made them doubly dear to the soldiers for any act of kindness is very much appreciated by a new soldier and when the boys are on the foreign battlefield and see the work of the American Red Cross, if they know how ardently Brodhead women are working they would think even more tenderly of them.

One young man was asked of his occupation, meaning to learn of what he had done at home. He replied: "I am a soldier now, I was a miner." While he wore no uniform, no rank or color, he had that look in his eye, and the bearing which convinced us that he was in truth "A Soldier."
The boys from Rockcastle conducted themselves fine on this trip and I am sure their career as soldiers, let them remain as privates or gain promotion, will be such that the people here will be proud of them.

DO YOU ENJOY LIFE?
A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.
